BIBLE STORY

Some of the scattered believers traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking about Jesus only to Jews. However, some of the scattered believers went to Antioch and began telling non-Jewish Greeks the Good News about the Lord Jesus. The Lord was with them and many people believed and turned to the Lord (Ac 10:19-21).

The news about Antioch reached the church in Jerusalem. The Jerusalem church sent Barnabas to Antioch. Barnabas was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and faith. Barnabas arrived in Antioch and saw evidence that God blessed the people. Barnabas was glad and encouraged them all to remain true to the Lord. Many people believed in the Lord (Ac 11:22-24).

Barnabas traveled from Antioch to the city of Tarsus to look for Saul. Barnabas found Saul and brought him back to Antioch. For a whole year, Barnabas and Saul met with the church and taught many people.

The disciples were called "Christians" for the first time in the city of Antioch (Ac 11:25-26).

LIFE-LESSONS

1. A problem that appears to be a serious crisis can become an opportunity for God to act. The persecuted believers' scattering resulted in the successful evangelism of non-Jews (Ac 11:19-21).
2. Different approaches should be used to present the gospel to different cultural groups. Jesus was presented to the non-Jews as the Lord (Ac 11:20), while he was presented to the Jews as the Messiah whom the Jews were waiting for (Ac 2:36; 5:42; 8:5; 9:22). Non-Jewish Christians called Jesus by the title "Lord," while Jewish Christians called him by the title "Christ."

4. People without leadership positions in the church are essential for evangelizing and planting new churches. Those who began the church in Antioch were laymen (Ac 11:20).
5. Unnamed and unrecognized people may do great work in advancing God's kingdom. Those who began the church in Antioch were unnamed people without leadership positions (Ac 11:20).
6. Mockers may unintentionally proclaim the truth. In Antioch, non-believers gave believers the nickname "Christians" (Ac 11:26). The nickname was given in ridicule and meant "Christ followers" or "people of Christ's party."
