

EVEN THOUGH . . .

By Doris Day

Even though Adam and Eve disobeyed God, and they had to leave the Garden of Eden,
The Lord God brought restoration to their lives.

Even though Noah was mocked as he built the ark, and he stayed in the boat with the stench of animals during the flood,
The Lord God sustained and delivered him.

Even though Joseph was betrayed and sold into slavery by his brothers, and he was thrown into the gloomy prison unjustly,
The Lord God was with him.

Even though David ran for his life, hiding in caves, and he fought continuous war battles,
The Lord God protected and guided him.

Even though David committed adultery, and he took the life of an innocent victim,
The Lord God heard his cries of repentance and forgave him.

Even though Daniel was schemed against, and he had to face the fierce lions because he prayed,
The Lord God delivered him safely.

Even though Ruth lost her husband, and she went to a new, strange homeland to care for her mother-in-law,
The Lord God was her comforter and stronghold.

Even though Hosea had an unfaithful wife, and he preached to a rebellious nation,
The Lord God remained faithful.

Even though Job lost all his children, wealth and health, and his wife and friends scorned him,
The Lord God sustained, comforted and strengthened him.

Even though Stephen shared his testimony to an angry crowd, and he was stoned to death,
The Lord God was his hope and solid rock of salvation.

Even though you go through stormy weather, rocky and thorny pathways, and you go through deep, lonely, painful valleys in your life,
The Lord God is your rock of salvation, who always remains faithful.
The Lord God is your deliverer, who forgives the cries of repentance.
The Lord God is your comforter, who sustains you with His strength and grace.
The Lord God is your hope, who brings new beginnings, if you trust in Him.
